

Special Prosecution Unit

Special Prosecutor – Criminal Division

About the Position

The Special Prosecution Unit is growing and seeking an experienced, self-motivated prosecutor to handle serious felony cases occurring in correctional facilities across Texas. This position will be based out of the SPU home office in Huntsville, Texas, and offers a unique opportunity to serve multiple district attorneys' offices while maintaining significant autonomy in managing your regional caseload. Applicants living in the Houston to Huntsville corridor who want to protect communities across Texas should consider this opportunity.

Key Responsibilities

- Prosecute serious felony cases arising from within correctional facilities, mostly in the East Texas region.
- Serve as the primary prosecutor for all cases within your assigned region.
- Collaborate and maintain strong working relationships with local district attorneys and their staff.
- Travel to counties within your region as needed for court appearances.

Required Qualifications

- Active membership in good standing with the State Bar of Texas.
- Prosecution experience.
- Demonstrated ability to work independently with minimal oversight.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Willingness and ability to travel within Texas.
- Commitment to public service and collaborative teamwork.

What We Offer:

Compensation & Benefits:

- Competitive salary commensurate with experience
- State Bar dues covered
- Continuing Legal Education (CLE) expenses paid
- Comprehensive insurance benefits
- Retirement benefits

Work Environment:

- Flexible work environment.
- Collaborative and respectful team culture.
- Mission-driven organization dedicated to serving Texas district attorneys.
- Professional autonomy and responsibility.
- Supportive colleagues who value the work we do.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a resume and cover letter to:

Tia Monjaras
Special Prosecution Unit
1300 11th Street, Suite 520
Huntsville, Texas 77340
tdoolan@sputexas.org

The Special Prosecution Unit is an equal opportunity employer.